

Write Investigative Question:

6. Monitor: What else would you like to know about this source? How would you go about finding answers to your questions?

5. Inference: What might this primary source tell us about the topic under study?

4. Context: What else was happening when this primary source was created?

3. Summarize: Read the primary source. What does it definitely tell us?

2. Describe: Before reading, record the bibliographic information for this primary source.

Creator:

Date:

Place:

Subject:

Predict what this primary source is about: